Delhi, the 27th December, 1962

No. F.6(54)/61-M&PH.—Whereas the Chief Commissioner, Delhi, is satisfied that the Union Territory of Delhi is threatened with an outbreak of a dangerous epidemic disease, namely small-pox, and that the ordinary provisions of the law for the time being in force are insufficient for dealing with the same:—

Now, therefore, in pursuance of section 2 of the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897, he is pleased to empower:—

1. Medical Officer of Health, Municipal Corporation of Delhi.
2. Deputy Health Officer, Municipal Corporation of Delhi.
3. Officer Incharge, Small-Pox Eradication Scheme, Municipal Corporation of Delhi.
4. Liaison Officer, Red Fort, Delhi.
5. Medical Officer of Health, New Delhi Municipal Committee, New Delhi.
6. Executive Officer, Delhi Cantonment Board, Delhi Cantonment.

at their discretion to order the removal of any person believed to be suffering from the said disease to the Infectious Diseases Hospital at Kingsway camp in Delhi or other place set apart for the reception of persons found or suspected to be suffering from the said disease and to direct his segregation therein for such time as the officer ordering the removal may consider necessary.

Under the same provision of law the Chief Commissioner, Delhi is pleased further to prescribe the following temporary regulations to be observed by all members of the public in the Union Territory of Delhi for preventing the further spread of the said epidemic disease. These regulations shall unless previously rescinded remain in force for a period of one year from the date of this Notification, provided that the said period may be extended by further order.

REGULATIONS

1. Any person whose removal to the Infectious Diseases Hospital at Kingsway Camp or other place of segregation is ordered by an authority empowered in this behalf shall comply with the order and shall not leave the Infectious Diseases Hospital or other place of segregation until permitted to do so by the said authority.

2. The Head of the family in a house in which any person is living who is ordered by the said authority to be removed to the Infectious Diseases Hospital or other place of segregation and all relatives of any such person who may at the same time be living with him shall use their best endeavours to facilitate the removal.

3. Any person disobeying these regulations shall be deemed to have committed an offence punishable under Section 188 of the Indian Penal Code.

ORDER

Delhi, the 27th December, 1962

No. F.6(21)/60-M&PH.—The Chief Commissioner, Delhi is pleased to extend upto the 31st December, 1963, the period of operation of the regulations prescribed in his Notification No. F.6(21)/60-M&PH(ii), dated the 1st January, 1962.

By order,
